WHITE HOUSE WOULD RESERVE PRIVACY RIGHTS FOR CRIMINALS AND NOT THE INNOCENT

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, we have just gone through an exercise talking about the rule of law. The White House has recently become remarkably solicitous of the privacy rights of convicted felons.

While the coddling of criminals is nothing new for liberals, what is new is the idea that the White House cares about privacy rights for the law-abiding.

I ask the White House, what about the privacy rights of the 900 Republicans whose FBI files ended up in the hands of political operatives in the White House?

What about the privacy rights of Billy Dale and the other Travel Office employees? Rights which were trampled upon by the IRS and the FBI in a despicable smear campaign.

In this strange new world, privacy rights are reserved for convicted criminals and denied to the innocent.

Mr. Speaker, this entire episode is a perfect example of the liberal mindset when it comes to crime: Misplaced priorities, double standards, and always, always, always, preference for the rights of criminals over the rights of the law-abiding.

TIME IS NOW TO END U.S. SUPPORT FOR SUHARTO DICTATORSHIP

(Mr. SANDERS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SANDERS. Mr. Speaker, the time is now to end U.S. support for the Suharto dictatorship in Indonesia and to help that country move for democracy.

General Suharto is a dictator who has been in office for over 30 years and during that period has committed horrendous atrocities. Today his political opponents are in jail, they are being tortured, they are being kidnapped by the secret police.

Just the other day, six unarmed student protesters were shot down in cold blood. General Suharto is known not only for his brutality but for his corruption and greed. In a country where the average income is less than $20 a week, his family has amassed a fortune of over $30 billion.

Mr. Speaker, if the brave students of Indonesia are prepared to put their lives on the line to end the Suharto dictatorship, how can we ignore their cries for freedom? Let us end our support for Suharto now.
